I must say, I found "Almost A Foreign Country" to be a happy surprise. Delightful, insightful and at all times witty, Mr. Wolf certainly creates the image of a very intelligent, if at times all too clear sighted observer of this country...seen with the eyes of someone who both loves this America, but who can see us warts and all!

What are the countries receiving foreign aid doing with all that cash? What countries do with their foreign assistance from the United States ultimately depends on what the aid is earmarked for. In countries like Afghanistan , for example, nearly 84% of its $5.94 billion in aid was designated for military assistance according to USAID.
