Shannara isn't a land of the past or fantasy - it's the land of the future. It's the land that emerged after an apocalyptic time period full of demons re-emerging and humans allowing the land to go be poisoned by their greed. In Armageddon's Children, we get to see how it all happened and where it all came from.

Armageddon's Children book by Terry Brooks
The Shannara books are, in a sense, post-post-apocalyptic fantasy. In "Armageddon's Children," Brooks gives us the beginning of the story, when the Four Lands are still recognizably the West Coast of the US and recognizably American characters are eking out an existence or going on quests in places like Los Angeles and Seattle.
