Unusual bidding conventions must be "alerted," which means that if you make an unusual bid, your partner must say "alert" or pull the blue "Alert" card out of the bidding box. The first opponent to bid may then (or at the end of the auction – their choice) ask the player alerting his/her partner's bid what it means.

Guide to Bridge Bidding Conventions

With only 15 words allowed during an auction and just 13 cards in each suit, bridge players have invented dozens of special bids, called conventions, to describe their strength and hand patterns. These descriptions are from the ACBL Bridge Bulletin series called the Bidding Toolkit. The ACBL textbooks Commonly Used Conventions and More Commonly Used Conventions contain detailed chapters on the use of many of today's popular treatments.
