As followers, we need to be keenly aware when our own loyalty to our shepherds is being diverted within ourselves. Though a primary requirement of God for leaders, very little has been written on this subject. In this book, Dag Heward-Mills outlines very important principles, with the intention of increasing the stability of churches.

1. Loyalty is the principal qualification for every minister. An inexperienced person is likely to think that the more gifted you are, the more qualified you are for the ministry. My little experience has shown me that it is the faithful and loyal people in church who are most qualified to be leaders. Friendly and Flashy!

How do you fight an enemy that you cannot see? This question is the reason why Dag Heward-Mills wrote this book, because it is impossible to fight an enemy who can see you when you are not even aware of them! The key to success in your church or anywhere, is loyalty. In Leaders and Loyalty the affect of a loyal person on business or ministry are tremendous. "Qualifications do not impress me as much as loyalty does," says Heward-Mills. The author exposes deceptions of disloyalty - and as usual provides great practical examples - and reveals the keys to develop godly loyalty. The research that is shared, combined with the Bishop's personal experience, provides the reader with an excellent insight into the reality of leadership. The six manifestations of disloyalty, seven methods of dealing with disloyalty and the basic facts of loyalty are discussed.

Proven Principles and strategies thoroughly discussed and the underlying logic behind them made transparent - A valuable resource for any minister - An excellent reference and practical guide - An authoritative handbook to establish churches -Invaluable tips for training laity to perform priestly functions -Helpful hints on how to prevent church splits.

Rebellious people do not remember what has been done for them and often choose to forget certain things. Judas did not remember what the Lord had done for him, neither did he remember the things he had seen and heard from Jesus. That is why he became the despicable character we know today as 'Judas'. The ability to remember is one of the most important spiritual qualities a minister can have. People who do not remember, rarely do well. They simply fail to rise to certain heights. This special book, on this rarely discussed topic is a gift from God to you.

"Mwina mmodzi mwa adani aakulu omwe mutha kukumana nawo ndi 'woneneza pakati pa abale'." Landirani chidziwitso chachikulu cha momwe chida chimenechi cha kuneneza chimadzera ndipo phunzirani za momwe mungachigonjetsere, pomwe mukuwerenga bukhu lapanwambali, lolembedwa ndi Dag Heward-Mills.

People who leave you can destroy you. Nothing can describe the feeling of depression, confusion and anxiety that descends when people walk away from you. This book has been written to help you to fight the destruction that is unleashed when people leave you. Do not be deceived. Being abandoned or being deserted is not unique to you and your ministry. Many others have suffered the same things. Satan was the first rebel and has inspired all rebellions since then. With this book in your hand, you will rise up and fight the spirit of disloyalty that is released by "those who leave you."

In this book Dag Heward-Mills unveils the certain characters that you deal with in your ministry and who you should watch out for. You'll get to deal with doubtful men whose loyalty comes into question from time to time, dangerous sons who can turn on you like wild tigers, bad advisors who will not protect and help you and painfully disloyal people. Scoffers and mockers will always be part of the world we live in and they don't think much of you and actually despise you. This is a spirit that tries to shut up and intimidate you. Like in any other work environment, there is always a person that you should watch out for and that is why you should be able to recognize these certain traits that are taught in this book. The author also tells the reader to be grateful. This world has six billion ungrateful people! This is what creates the discontentment, conflict and wars. There are people we must be grateful to, says Dag Heward-Mills in the conclusion of this book.

Having received Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior you are saved! You are a born-again Christian and your name is written in the book of life. Your question is: "What is the next step to take? Having become a Christian is a good step, but it is just the beginning. You ought to become a good strong Christian.

This book is another gift from the pen of Dag Heward-Mills to all ministers who would bother to read it. This book will answer the questions on how to manage the complicated relationships between fathers and sons. Through the teaching of this book, you will avert a curse on your life and bring upon yourself a blessing. Fathers are special people who raise up sons and proteges. Without fathers there would be no children to continue the ministry to other generations. The call of God flourishes or dies with your ability to relate with fathers. Read this book and avoid the curse associated with dishonouring, disobeying and having poor relationships with fathers."

The Bible admonishes us to: "look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others"(Phillippians 2:4). In this timely book, Dag Heward-Mills challenges you to go beyond thinking about yourself and think of others also! Love others also! Consider others also! Care about others also! Live for others also! Jesus came to die for us because He thought about "others". I want to be more like Him. Do you want to be like Jesus?
