equal like men. Women proved that they can fight in the military alongside men. They have a basketball team but you still don't allow woman to play football. I know people against Gender Equality will say they do not have the physical strength. Why won't you at least let them prove themselves. If they can join the army in combat they can do anything that men do.

Is gender equality possible? | Debate.org

Men and women should be equal in the twenty first century because this is the century where the strength of intelligence is greater than the physical strength. Along time ago, the majority of people believed that men should work harder than women because they are responsible financially to feed and support their families.

Josephine Bartosch. 22 October, 2020. It's easy to mock fringe groups like the Women's Equality Party (WEP), but they exist for a very good reason; as a "class", women have yet to achieve equality at work, home or within the public sphere. Some contrarians, myself amongst them, take the Dworkin line, arguing that equality with men is merely "a commitment to becoming the rich instead of the poor, the rapist instead of the raped, the murderer instead of the murdered."
