Since capitalism has been so far, the best system for producing equality, as I define it, then since I support equality...meaning everyone getting enough, I must morally support capitalism, since it is the system, built on freedom and other things, that produced the effect I desire: equality...everyone getting enough.

~~Equality vs. Freedom - Linkyou~~

Freedom and equality are often viewed as conflicting values. But there are at least three conceptions of freedom-negative, positive, and republican-and three conceptions of equality-of standing, esteem, and authority. Libertarians argue that rights to negative liberty override claims to positive liberty. However, a freedom-based defense of private property rights must favor positive over ...
