Killing Is My Business... and Business Is Good! is the debut studio album by American thrash metal band Megadeth, released on June 12, 1985 by Combat Records. At the beginning of 1985, the band was given $8,000 by Combat to record and produce its debut album. The band was forced to fire their original producer and produce the album by themselves, after spending half of the album's budget on drugs, alcohol, and food.

Originally released in 1985, Megadeth's debut album 'Killing is My Business....And Business is Good!' contained some great songs, including 'Looking Down the Cross', 'Rattlehead' and 'The Chosen Ones'. Sadly, the record's impact was muted by the sort of flat, muddy production that plagued many thrash albums of the era.

Another highlight found on Killing is My Business is the title track. An energetic piece from the band, every important aspect to be found in a Megadeth track can be heard here. Though shorter than Mechanix, it too has an excellent, anthemic chorus. But the real story here is definitely the relentless guitar assault from Dave and Chris.
