This lack of civility in politics cannot be blamed on any one individual or party. It has been building for some time. No doubt this reflects, in part, a long-term cultural shift

Here are some strategies on how to talk about politics without getting into a fight. 1. Don't try to educate anyone.

Don't start a conversation intending to prove someone is wrong or to change their mind. Neurological research shows that it's really hard to change our own minds, let alone someone else's.
