Thomas Merton's Letter to a Young Activist. Thomas Merton (photo by John Howard Griffin) By Jim Forest. Early in 1966 I was hard hit by all sorts of troubles. I was also discouraged about the work I was doing. Despite the fact that opposition to the Vietnam war was steadily growing, week by week the war was getting worse — troop numbers rising, more and more bombs falling, and ever more casualties, the great majority of which were civilian.
