Where to begin? Putting together your cards is very simple. You basically work within a set size — postcards are 4" by 6", ATC's are 2.5" by 3.5". You need to stabilize them and finish the edges. Choices abound here, and there are no set "rules". Use stabilizers or simply batting over cardstock paper or actual playing cards.

Most fabric postcards made by quilters measure 4x6 inches and can be mailed using one self-adhesive first-class stamp. Keep your postcards 1/8-inch or less thick to stay within weight limits. Postcards more than 1/4-inch thick usually weigh more than the minimum and require an extra fee for the increased depth.
