Bifurcation. This chapter focuses on one of the most important procedural decisions a tribunal can make in an investment arbitration: the bifurcation or trifurcation of issues into separate phases. The rationale behind bifurcation/trifurcation is straightforward: bifurcation may result in the narrowing or even dismissal of claims, but can significantly increase the costs and duration of an arbitration.

This chapter examines evidentiary issues that arise in investment arbitrations. It first reviews the basic procedures through which the evidentiary record is generally established in international arbitrations before discussing the procedural rules that usually apply in investment arbitration cases. In particular, it considers both the mandatory law and the specific rules that parties are likely to select as applying to an investment dispute.
