space adventure I enjoyed the book, particularly the early preparation, travel and exploration. I thought it bogged down when it went into philosophical areas, especially near the end. It closed with too much exposition and not enough action, leaving me with a vague sense of being let down. Still, I'll look for ...

Terradox by Craig A. Falconer -
Goodreads

Craig A Falconer's 'Terradox' is an interesting and exciting Science Fiction thriller of a book. A spacecraft bound for a research station orbiting Venus is diverted from it's path to land on an uncharted planet between Earth and Venus... a planet that just should not exist. The eight survivors are hard pressed to explain where, in fact, they are.
