Meet Anne Graham, mother of two young children, young, attractive, heavily pregnant — and alone. Things have not worked out at all the way Anne intended. Her promising academic career was cut short by an unexpected pregnancy and an early marriage. Her stable home life crumbled with her husband's announcement that he was leaving her to move into a commune with his secretary. Now she is a housebound single mother, whose intellectual life has shrunk to stolen moments of bedtime reading. The solution to her problem is clear to her friends and neighbours. She must find someone to mind the children and then go back to school or get a job. It's obvious. Or is it? Once again, Constance Beresford-Howe has approached a common theme from an uncommon point of view, with her own blend of perceptiveness and dry humour.

This book will unveil the marriage bed in a way that is different than any other. I must warn you in advance. This book isn't for you if you fall under either one of these categories: 1. Holier than thou. 2. Weak-minded. 3. A goodie two shoes. 4. That isn't me. 5. That is beneath me. 6. That is nasty. 7. That isn't God. I wrote this book to help couples rekindle their sex life and their marriage. To remind them of what first attracted them to one another from the gate. I wrote this book to hopefully help strengthen and save marriages. You have to have an open mind in order to understand where I'm coming from in this, my book. I understand that this isn't a Christian topic nor do Christians (most) care to discuss this matter. Sex has and continues to destroy many Christian marriages, as well as unsaved marriages and nothing is being done about it.
