the shema in the mezuzah. Jewish tradition teaches that to live in peace we all must learn to make compromises. Compromise is defined as agreement through communication, where agreement - not victory - is the goal. An oft-quoted verse from the Torah reads, "Justice, justice shall you pursue." [Deut. 16:20]. Rashi, the 12th century scholar who inspired this story, explained the repetition: justice is said once for the law and once for compromise.
