4.0 out of 5 stars Son of the Summer Stars. Reviewed in the United States on August 18, 2006. Verified Purchase. I thought this book was a spectacular finish to the trilogy, while at the same time being a little dull in places. The passing of time in the Dragon's lair has been criticised, but I thought it wasn't too bad for the story over all.

The Son of Summer Stars Quotes by Meredith Ann Pierce

The family's three sons, Jack, Johnny and Joe, become intertwined with the game and the town's issues that tear them apart. A true ballplayer, a rebel and a storyteller, the brothers battle through Rupland's hardships of death, decline and war.

The Sons of Summer - IMDb

Written in 1996, The Son of Summer Stars clearly connects with Dark Moon with little in the way of continuity flaws, though there are still things the author did in Dark Moon that I thought had little or no point and ultimately had no ulterior purpose in The Son of Summer Stars, which meant that they really should have been trimmed out of the already wanting middle book.
