Wolfhart Pannenberg. While teaching that nothing less than the whole of reality is the proper horizon of theology, Wolfhart Pannenberg (born 1928) insisted that the resurrection of Jesus provides the best key for understanding that reality.

Wolfhart Pannenberg | Encyclopedia.com

One important legacy that Pannenberg will leave for young theologians at the turn of the century is an interdisciplinary paradigm for constructing theology. Pannenberg's Systematic Theology is a brilliant presentation of an authentically Christian and intellectually plausible view of reality, developed in intradisciplinary theological cooperation and tested in interdisciplinary dialogue with other sciences. Philosophy plays a critical, multi-faceted role in theology which is conducted in ...
