Published in 2011, When She Woke is a young adult novel in the dystopian sci-fi genre. Author Hillary Jordan bases her work on a futuristic update of a classic novel - Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter. She also brings in elements from another well-known work in this genre - Margaret Atwood's The Handmaid's Tale. Critics worry that although the story Jordan creates has flashes of original and inspired ideas, by combining these two much-admired works, the author finds it hard ...

"WHEN SHE WOKE undoubtedly will generate much discussion, not only for Jordan's passionate and vivid writing, but even more so for her unflinching imagining of a bleak future." A formerly devout and dedicated Christian and dutiful daughter, Hannah has been found guilty of adultery and murder in the second degree.
